IN THE SIGHT OF SUCH LOVE

"You are my beloved . . . With you I am well pleased."

I find, even among people of faith, a certain reticence to being told they are God's beloved. We often sidestep the issue; "Well, God only loves Jesus like that, not me."

Even now, as you're reading this, you might be squirming a bit. It all feels a bit soft, a bit too lenient, a bit too intimate. After all, John the Baptist preached judgment, repentance, a little fire and brimstone—and the people were "filled with expectation" that he was the Christ. And then out of obscurity and into the water walked Jesus, meek and humble of heart, breaking not "a bruised reed" - and he was revealed to be God's Beloved Incarnation.

And from this bountiful sense of belovedness, Jesus heals the sick, forgives sinners, eats with outcasts, and spreads the Good News to all he encounters. He shares this sense of being God's beloved with us too, for we are baptized into Christ.

There's a wonderful icon, often called the "Harrowing of Hell," where the newly risen Christ breaks down the gates of hell and pulls Adam and Eve out of their graves. Below him, baptismal water flows, sanctifying the realm of the dead and despairing. Are Adam and Eve, dead for centuries, sunken in their sin, squirming at the sight of such love? No, they grab the hand of their beloved, who restores to them their own original belovedness. Today, in light of our own baptism, let's take Christ's hand, and follow their lead.

PRAYERS FOR OUR PARISHIONERS

Please pray for parishioner Scott Aldrighetti, Jan Harman, Mary Johnson, Aaron Kranker, Bob Lauck, Lisa Pitts Martin, Margaret Setina, and Randy VanLeeuwen who are ill or in need of prayers. Please note that individuals on our prayer list are left on until a request is made to remove them. Requests to be added or removed can be sent to jmscales414@gmail.com. Thank you!

CHRISTMAS DECORATION REMOVAL

The Christmas decorations will be taken down after the 8:00 mass on Sunday, January 9. We appreciate any help with this endeavor on rather short notice. Also a grateful thank you for those that helped decorate and to those that will help with the removal.

VALUE THEM BOTH

You are invited to a presentation on "Value Them Both" by Father Bernie Gorges. It will be held on Friday, January 14th at 6:30pm in the St. Michael parish hall.

What is "Value Them Both?"

VALUE THEM BOTH is the proposed state constitutional amendment for life supported by the Catholic Bishops of Kansas. The amendment is crucial because the Kansas Supreme Court recently created a nearly unlimited "right" to abortion, including taxpayer-funded abortion, teens seeking an abortion without parental knowledge or consent and late-term abortions. Once passed, the VALUE THEM BOTH will help protect mothers and their unborn babies from the abortion industry. Please pray for passage of VALUE THEM BOTH.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

Given in Baptism

Is 42:1-4, 6-7 / Acts 10:34-38 / Lk 3:15-16, 21-22

In baptism, Jesus is given his public mission and ultimately, his destiny on the cross. Today's Gospel should lead us to ask, then, what were you and I given in baptism? The most important answer is redemption, but there is much more. We were given our identity in Jesus Christ. We were given a place to belong in God's Kingdom. We were given an indelible mark, making us members of the Body of Christ. We were given the Holy Spirit, and the gifts that He blesses us with. We were given grace! Some people approach baptism for their children out of obligation, but if they understood all that it meant, they might approach this sacrament with more enthusiasm! Jesus' baptism signifies his deep devotion to God and His plan for Salvation. Take some time today to reflect on your own baptism and all that it means to you!

EVERY LIFE IS WORTH LIVING

Heavenly Father, thank you for the precious gift of life.

Help us to cherish and protect this gift, even in the midst of fear, pain, and suffering.

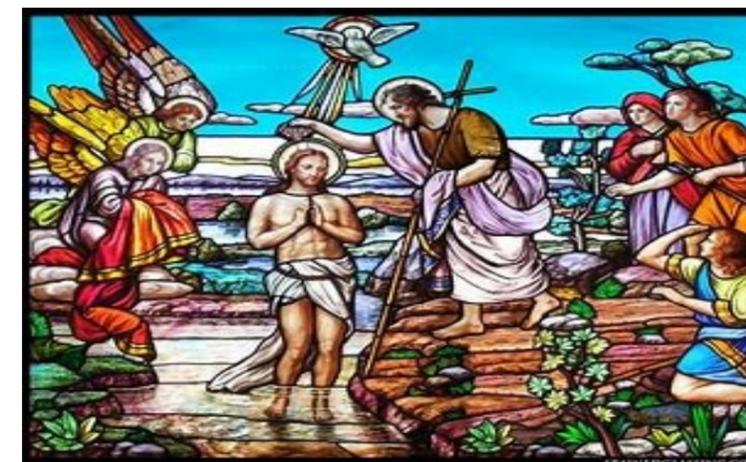

Give us love for all people, especially the most vulnerable, and help us bear witness to the truth that every life is worth living.

Grant us the humility to accept help when we are in need, and teach us to be merciful to all.

Through our words and actions, may others encounter the outstretched hands of Your mercy.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

-United States Conference of Catholic Bishops
