BOUND TOGETHER IN PEACE

When love has entirely cast out fear, and fear has been transformed into love, then the unity brought us by our Savior will be fully realized, for all [people] will be united with one another through their union with the one supreme Good. They will possess the perfection ascribed to the dove, according to our interpretation of the text: One alone is my dove, my perfect one. She is the only child of her mother, her chosen one [Song 6:9].

Our Lord's words in the gospel bring out the meaning of this text more clearly. After having conferred all power on his disciples by his blessing, he obtained many other gifts for them by his prayer to the Father. Among these was included the greatest gifts of all, which was that they were no longer to be divided in their judgment of what was right and good, for they were all to be united to the one supreme Good. As the Apostle says, they were to be bound together with the bonds of peace in the unity that comes from the Holy Spirit. They were to be made one body and one spirit by the one hope to which they were all called. We shall do better, however, to quote the sacred words of the gospel itself. I pray, the Lord says, that they all may be one; that as you, Father, are in me and I am in you, so they also may be one in us.

St. Gregory of Nyssa, Homily on the Song of Songs

Gregory of Nyssa (ca. 330-395) chose a secular career and married. Reluctantly, he later received episcopal ordination and became bishop of Nyssa. One of the three Cappadocian Fathers, he was gifted both intellectually and spiritually and has been called "the father of Christian mysticism."

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

Holmes' Sweet Home

Acts 1:1-11 / Ps 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9 / Eph 1:17-23 / Lk 24:46-53
"Watson, are you familiar with the Case of the Missing Christ?" "Certainly Holmes, you?" "Well, my dear Watson, I've only recently come across this mystery. It is said this man they called Jesus, was actually a god, more specifically, a man, a spirit and a god -man all in one." "Yes, I know Holmes, what of it?" "Do you mean to tell me Watson, you know of this case? How this Jesus was born of a virgin woman, conceived by a spirit no less, lived until he was 33 years of age, and was murdered? Then, after dying, he came back to life and went around appearing to people, around 500 they say, and then he vanished in thin air?" "Holmes, I know all about it, I'm a Christian. He didn't disappear, by the way, he ascended into heaven, it's called the Ascension." "That's preposterous my dear Watson!" "Don't take my word for it, Holmes, do your homework. Here, take my Bible, see for yourself!" Three days later. "Watson, I've done it, I've solved the Case of the Missing Christ!" "Have you? Pray, tell me your findings!" "Elementary my dear Watson, Jesus returned home!" "Bravo, Holmes, bravo!"
