LOOKING FOR A PENTECOST MOMENT

The closest I have ever come to a Pentecost moment was my experience at World Youth Day in 2011. I made the pilgrimage to Spain with friends and young adults from local parishes, many of us having never been outside the United States before. We were overwhelmed by how many young people we met from all over the world. They had flags to identify where they had traveled from and what countries they represented. The thing that struck me most was how we were able to communicate and connect with people even though we did not share a common language. The sole thing we all had in common was this encounter of being pilgrims on the journey and being guided by our faith in Christ.

It strikes me that Scripture does not simply say that the apostles spoke in new languages. It also says that they were understood. Episcopal minister Eric Law talks about two miracles at play in this story. The obvious one is the miracle of the tongue—that those who spoke were able to speak through the Holy Spirit in ways that others understood. However, a less obvious miracle is the gift of the ear—the miracle that the people who received the message may have understood it because of their faith.

I believe we need both miracles today. As we pray for our own Pentecost moments—moments that will bring together those of us who are different in so many ways—let us be sure to pray not only for the miracle of the tongue but also for the gift of the ear. And maybe ask, as the “Prayer of St. Francis” does, for the desire to understand more than to be understood.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

Pentecost Sunday

Acts 2:1-11 / Ps 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34 / 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Rom 8:8-17 / Jn 20:19-23 or Jn 14:15-16, 23b-26

In the Upper Room...

Day 1: “Lord, here we are gathered, please send us your Advocate!”

Day 2: “Come, Holy Spirit, Come!”

Day 3: “Peter, I bet you today is the day! Our Lord likes to work in three's.” “Yes, John, let's be patient.”

Day 4: “When he flew away on that cloud, did anyone catch the time-line?”

Day 5: “Nathaniel, what were you doing under the fig tree anyway?”

Day 6: “How much longer do we have this room for?”

Day 7: “Thomas, why don't you go for a walk, things usually happen when you aren't around.”

Day 8: “Children, do whatever he asked of you.” “Yes, Mother Mary.”

Day 9: “Jesus, is Lord!”

We can't go wrong calling upon the Holy Spirit. We can't go wrong inviting our Blessed Mother into our prayer. As missionary disciples in a stewardship diocese we need each other's fiery passion to fan the flames in our hearts. We might not experience tongues of fire, but as St. Catherine of Siena once said, “If we become the person God created us to be, we will set the world on fire,” and what a sight that would be!
