LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL

In early July, many parishes in the United States face the question of how much “American” fare to include in Masses around Independence Day. There is a beautiful Collect for Mass on July 4 that reads, “Grant that we and all the people of this land may have grace to maintain our liberties in righteousness and peace.” Most parishes will also include prayers for the nation in the Prayers of the Faithful. But conflicts sometimes arise over the use of songs like “America the Beautiful,” “My Country ‘Tis of Thee,” and even “The Star-Spangled Banner.” Some Catholics feel it’s fine to pray for the United States, others think that it’s out of place in the context of the Mass.

A deeper question may be this: When we pray for our countries, for whom are we praying? Often the prayers are for civic leaders and the military, both groups that need our prayers. But how often do we pray for the “liberties” of people who are overlooked: the poor and homeless, the immigrants and those with low-paying jobs, the inmates in our jails?

When I was growing up, we started every school day with the Pledge of Allegiance, which instilled a great love of country in me. That famous oath ends with the words “with liberty and justice for all.” All means all. So on Independence Day and beyond, can we pray that all people, in every country, may be treated with justice? And then act to bring about a world of “righteousness and peace.”

Fr. James Martin is a Jesuit priest, editor at America magazine, and author of many books, including Learning to Pray and In All Seasons, For All Reasons, a collection drawn from Give Us This Day.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

On your marks!

Is 66:10-14c / Ps 66:1-3, 4-5, 16,20 / Gal 6:14-18 / Lk 10:1-12, 17-20

“Hear now, all you who fear God, while I declare what he has done for me.” This is a poignant declaration by today’s Psalmist. It hits at the heart of the New Evangelization. Let’s break down the Psalm. “Hear now”—don’t wait for the magic moment, start today! “All you who fear God”—the audience are those disciples, perhaps, who have not been sent or are still waiting and wanting to be called—find one, or two or twelve! “While I declare what he has done for me”—it’s story time! There is just something that draws us in when a personal testimony is expressed from the heart. It brings the power of God to life! Every disciple has a story about why they are following Jesus. What’s yours? Write it down, share it with a trusted friend, run it by a priest! Jesus tells us in today’s Gospel “the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few.” Ready, set, go!

TOTUS TUUS

Let’s welcome the Totus Tuus four-person team with our great St. Michael’s hospitality! They will arrive on Saturday, July 16 and depart on Friday, July 22. During their stay with us they will provide fun activities for our youth and help our youth grow in their relationships with the Lord as they learn about prayer, our Father, and the Luminous Mysteries. We also need volunteers to provide lunches and dinners for the four-person instruction team. Lunches will need to be brought to the parish hall and dinners may be brought there or provided in your home. Getting to meet and visit with these inspirational young adults is always a joy! We are blessed with a parish the size to accommodate these needs with each family only needing to take one meal or task. There is a sign-up sheet in the entrance of the church or feel free to contact Beth Wilson 620-724-3380 by text or call. Thank you in advance for any help you can provide.

Permission forms are also available at the church entrance to register your youth. There is no charge, but it would be appreciated if you could send a snack that your child enjoys that will be shared and offered at snack breaks (fruit, package of cookies, chips, crackers, fruit snacks, etc). Our youth are invited to bring friends and share their faith and fun. Students attending Totus Tuus during the day will also need to bring their own lunch. Schedule for classes at the parish hall during the week of July 17-22, 2022 is: 1st-6th grade - 9:00-3:00 Monday-Friday 7th-high school - 7:30-9:45 PM Sunday-Thursday
